General Business Terms and Conditions

These General Business Terms and Conditions are valid for all advance reservations for catering supplies which take place on our premises.

The set meal sequence must be discussed in advance with an authorized employee from our company; the requested and distributed menu suggestions are not automatically binding. Musicians' and Artists' fees can either be settled directly with the promoter /relevant person, or alternatively the fees can be placed in advance at our disposal.

The calculations are always based on the number of guests present. The precise number of guests expected for a set meal must be advised three days before the start of the event. A charge of 80% of the agreed price will be made for failure to turn up without any prior notice.

A charge of € 10,00 per reserved guest for a la carte events will be made for non appearance without advance notice.

Our restaurant director must be contacted personally or by telephone, for all changes, bookings, reservations and cancellations. Total cancellation of a private event in our restaurant can only be accepted in writing.

An after-hours surcharge of € 300,00 per hour (or part thereof) will be made for events that extend beyond midnight. If you have already taken out a special agreement with us these costs will not be applicable.

Our prices are final prices and, as a principle, include the lawful value-added tax. With particularly long-term fixed business (more than four months in advance) we must reserve the right to increase our prices depending on the market cost trends.

Our invoice is for immediate payment without any discount. By special arrangement the account can be sent out but it must be paid within seven days after receipt. We request that you send us written confirmation that you will bear the costs for a booked event.

If the contractor is not the organizer, then he is liable for the entire debt. The cost of damages caused by the organizer or his guests/customers to the furniture, equipment and fittings will be included in our invoice.

If you hold, or intend holding (without written permission) a political event on our premises – or we have reason to believe it is political – and that it could endanger smooth business activities, general safety, could threaten our guests, or our reputation, as well as acts of unwanted force, then we would be compelled to withdraw from our agreed contract with you.
